

Night CONFLICT CHART

CONFLICT	EXAMPLE AND PAGES	CHANGE in Elie
CHARACTER VS. NATURE	Pages 92-98 (Chapters 6 and 7) - The prisoners were eating snow off other prisoners' backs. Also, all the prisoners had to try to keep warm on the open cattle cars. Someone's face was covered with frost and snow. Him and his father were close together, but he didn't know if he was alive. Others prisoners were about to throw his father out, because he looked dead, but Elie slapped him and his father reacted. There was an old man who had bread, and his son went on top of him, and the father said that he was his father, and the old man died as the son took the bread. Then people went on top of the son, and they were both dead, side by side.	Elie felt that there was no longer a reason to live and struggle. Elie said that he was on 15, and he had seen so many horrible things already.

CHARACTER VS. SELF	Pages 105 -106 (Chapter 8) - His father was sick, and the head of the block told him that every man should fight for himself. He said that Elie was killing himself, and he should not give his ration to his father, and also take his father's ration.	Elie had thought that the head of the block was right, but he didn't want to admit it. He said to himself that it is too late to save his old father, and he also thought that he should have two rations of bread and soup. Then he felt guilty and ran to get soup for his father, but he didn't want it, he wanted water. His father said that Elie was being unkind to him, and all he wanted was water. He brought him water, and he became an invalid, so he could stay with his father. His father was hit with a truncheon because he was talking, and the last word he said was "Eliezer". The next day, his father was gone, and a new invalid was there. He was not sad, but thought that he was free.
--	--	--

CHARACTER VS. SOCIETY	Page 95 (Chapter 7) - A workman took a threw bread that he had into the wagon. There was a stampede for the bread. The workmen enjoyed seeing people fight to death over bread.	This changed Elie, because years later he saw passengers on a boat threw coins, and people dove into the water to get them .Elie told an old lady not to throw the money in. He remembered this for the rest of his life, especially the old man with the bread killed, and then his son killed, who killed his father.
CHARACTER VS. CHARACTER	Page 100 (Chapter 8) - Elie tries to get his father up from outside. His father told him to leave him to rest outside, because ehe is at his end. Elie said he couldn't stay there and that the people sleeping will never wake again. There were sirens and Elie went to his block, and forgot his father.	Elie knew that his father was giving up and close to dying. His father had chosen to die. Elie felt like he was not fighting with his father, but death itself.